Town Clerk's Office must be open from the time polls open until the close of polls in case a family member needs to drop off an absentee ballot.

A voter can return their completed absentee ballot to office themselves up to the day before the primary.

Only a family member (mother, father, sister, brother, aunt, uncle, cousin) or a health care aide can return a completed ballot for someone. Family member does not have to be living in same household. This can be done up until the close of polls on Primary Day.

A voter cannot return their completed absentee ballot on Primary Day.

A family member cannot handle an incomplete absentee ballot belonging to another family member; the ballot will have to be mailed to that individual.
